

Lamborn “Mary-Hāna Rosé” Wine 2023

100% single vineyard Oak Knoll, Napa Valley Rosé of Grenache

Heralded as perhaps the “best vintage ever” in Napa Valley, many winemakers feel that we may never see a vintage like this in our lifetime; perfect timing for above average yields in the vineyard. With possibly the latest harvest to date, we enjoyed extended hang time with no damaging heatwaves, fires, or significant rains. Graced with a bit more acidity in the grapes than average, the later harvest also brought forth more elegant flavors across the board. Quality is evident from beginning to end in this seductive Rosé from 2023.

Winemaker Chelsea Barrett’s tasting notes:

“A rich and vibrantly colored dry Rosé, this wine offers beautiful aromatic fruit notes of strawberry, passionfruit, watermelon, and guava, complemented by hints of rose petal. Flavors closely mimic the bouquet while introducing cranberry and white peach. With both complex minerality and balanced acidity, this wine ends with a velvety, dry finish. A fun, yet sophisticated Rosé.”
